

The decade of living dangerously or the Soaring 40s?

It's in our 40s that living costs typically start to really soar.... mortgage, kids, school fees, the list goes on. It's also the age when the incidence of people suffering a serious illness or injury starts to soar. Dramatically. In fact 68% of trauma insurance claims are made by people in their 40s*.

The 40s is also when many people let their insurance lapse....which is the exact opposite of what they should be doing. It's like flying your family into a storm and UNfastening your seat belts.

Insurance is much more complicated than people think. That's why the DIY insurance path is so littered with disasters. And there's so much at stake.

It's time to get some professional advice – from an adviser with the technical expertise and experience required to make sure you're properly covered.
